

ACTIVITY ONE

Have you ever tried a new hobby?

Yes, lately I have tried new hobbies. I have started going to the movies more frequently to watch a variety of films, which I have found very enjoyable and relaxing. Also, I have started kickboxing, which is an exciting and challenging way to keep fit and learn self-defense techniques.

Have you visited any interesting places recently?

Yes, I have recently visited some interesting places. Two months ago, I visited Arvi Park, a place full of nature, attractions, and interesting content.

Have you prepared any special meals for your family or friends?

No, I have never prepared a special meal for my family or friends because I don't know how to cook. However, I have helped in the kitchen on some occasions, such as chopping vegetables or setting the table.

Have you seen any good movies or TV shows lately?

Yes, I have seen some good movies lately. I recently saw "Godzilla and Kong: The New Empire," and it exceeded my expectations.

Have you read any interesting books in the last few months?

Yes, I have read an interesting book in the last few months. I finished reading "Ruge" by Daniel Habif. It is a call to tear down any obstacle in the way of your dreams, which have been silenced by doubts, fears, and prejudices.

Have you learned anything new, like playing a musical instrument or practicing a sport?

Yes, I am currently practicing kickboxing twice a week and have learned some self-defense techniques.

Have you ever traveled to another country?

Not at the moment. It is one of the activities I hope to do next year.

Have you met any famous people or celebrities?

Yes, I have had the opportunity to meet singers like Roberto Lugo and Papo Sánchez and interact with them.

Have you volunteered in any charity or community projects?

Yes, I have volunteered in a community project. I helped organize a website and participated in a local food drive, which collected donations for senior citizens.

Have you had any exciting or adventurous experiences in your life?

Yes, I have experienced something exciting. I have jumped from an attraction called a zip line at a height of 30 meters, which was a thrilling and unforgettable adventure.